

ENTREPRENEUR PAYS OFF BUSINESS LOANS WITH LIFE SETTLEMENT

THE SITUATION

John Vogel*, a 63-year-old entrepreneur, had several large outstanding business loans that he wanted to pay off before retiring. He had two insurance policies with a total death benefit of $3.5 million, but the cash surrender value for both policies was $0. John’s life expectancy was estimated to be between seven and ten years.

THE OUTCOME

ValMark worked with multiple providers to negotiate settlement offers resulting in a total offer of $843,000 or 28% of John’s total death benefit.

SUMMARY	POLICY #1	POLICY #2
POLICY TYPE	TERM	UL
DEATH BENEFIT	$2,000,000	$1,500,000
CASH SURRENDER VALUE	$0	$0
ANNUAL PREMIUMS	$46,535	$21,147
LIFE SETTLEMENT OFFER	$445,000	$365,000 + PAYOFF OF $33,000 LOAN

THE TAKEAWAY

According to a recent GAO study, Life Settlements deliver almost 4X the surrender value to seniors. As the troubled U.S. economy has improved, so has the Life Settlement market. Providers have more institutional money available to bid on policies than they have had in the last several years.

*Client name has been changed to protect confidentiality. | Each client’s experience varies, and there is no guarantee that a life settlement will generate an offer greater than the current cash surrender value. In such cases, the client can always surrender their policy to the carrier if the coverage is no longer needed. LIFE SETTLEMENT DISCLOSURE

- In a life settlement agreement, the current life insurance policy owner transfers the ownership and beneficiary designations to a third party, who receives the death proceeds at the passing of the insured. As a result, this buyer has a financial interest in the seller's death.
- A policy owner should consider the continued need for coverage, and, if the policy owner plans to replace the existing policy with another policy, the policy owner should consider the availability, adequacy and cost of comparable coverage.
- Policy owners considering the need for cash should consider other less costly alternatives.
- When an individual decides to sell their policy, he or she must provide complete access to his or her medical history, and other personal information, that may affect his or her life expectancy. This information is requested during the initial application for a life settlement.
- After the completion of the sale, there may be an ongoing obligation to disclose similar and additional information at a later date.
- Individuals should discuss the taxation of the proceeds received with their tax advisor.
- ValMark Securities supervises all life settlements like a security transaction.
- A life settlement may affect the insured's ability to obtain insurance in the future and the seller's eligibility for certain public assistance programs, such as Medicaid, and there may be tax consequences.
- ValMark and its registered representatives act as brokers on the transaction and may receive a fee from the purchaser.
- A life settlement transaction may require an extended period of time to complete. Due to complexity of the transaction, fees and costs incurred with the life settlement transaction may be substantially higher than other securities.
- Once the policy is transferred, the policy owner has no control over subsequent transfers.
- If you are an investor or a buyer of a life insurance policy then you should be aware that:
 - Investment in a life settlement is highly speculative.
 - Although a substantial profit may be realized, a substantial loss is also possible.
 - The death benefit may never be paid.
 - Additional funds may need to be invested to pay premiums if the insured lives substantially longer than expected.
